Governor Schwarzenegger appoints local attorney Paul Robinson to Airport Authority Board

SAN DIEGO – May 14, 2010 – California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger announced today the appointment of local attorney Paul Robinson to the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority Board. Robinson will fill the governor-appointed seat on the Board for a term running through June 30, 2011. The seat was formerly held by John Davies from January 7, 2010, to March 4, 2010.

Since 1982, Robinson has served as partner for the San Diego law firm of Hecht Solberg Robinson Goldberg and Bagley, where he was also an associate from 1980 to 1982. Previously, Robinson was assistant to San Diego Mayor Pete Wilson from 1978 to 1980 and deputy city attorney for San Diego from 1973 to 1978. He is a member of the Real Property and Public Law Sections of the California State Bar and of the Real Estate and Land Use Sections of the San Diego County Bar Association. His appointment does not require Senate confirmation.

It is expected that Robinson will be sworn in at the public Special Board Meeting/Budget Workshop of the Airport Authority Board on Monday, May 17, 2010.

In 2009, passengers rated San Diego International Airport 88% in overall passenger satisfaction, the highest in six years of surveying.
